IF YOU WANT TO REDUCE THE COST OF YOUR HOME IMPROVEMENT LOAN, HERE'S ALL YOU HAVE TO PUT UP.

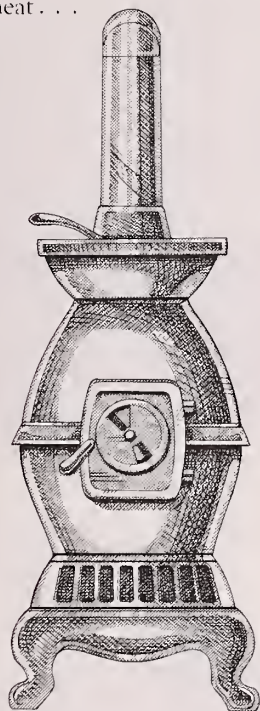

An energy-saving improvement like aluminum siding to help hold in the heat . . .

Or double-pane or storm windows all around your house . . .

Or an automatic flue damper on your furnace to cut down on heat waste . . .

Or extra insulation that can reduce your fuel bills . . .

Or maybe you'd like to try an alternate heating source like a wood burning stove. Or even solar heat.

ANNOUNCING 1/4% OFF YOUR HOME IMPROVEMENT LOAN JUST FOR SAVING ENERGY.

At Fairhaven Savings, we believe that one of the best investments you can make in your home is to make it more energy-efficient.

So if your home improvement plans include energy-saving features, we'll give you a Home Improvement Loan for a quarter of a percent less than our usual rate.

That means if you qualify, you'll be saving money twice.

You'll save on the cost of your loan. And you'll save on your heating bills.

Given the way fuel prices have been rising, that'll mean bigger and bigger savings in the years ahead.

And you know, of course, that improving your home is always a good investment. It not only makes your house more enjoyable to live in.

It also increases its value if you ever decide to sell it.

So if you want to reduce the cost of improving your home, save your energy. And we'll save you money.

Opening Concert Sunday

The Rodgers and Hammerstein of Rochester, Mrs. James Gurney and her son, Spencer, wrote the words and music for a special number to be featured at Sunday's concert by John Pandolfi and the Regional Symphonic Band. The composition, "Sippican", was introduced last summer during the pageant honoring Rochester's 300th birthday anniversary. George Dietzler, a flutist with the band, arranged it for the 46 musicians. Mrs. Nancylee Gaucher will sing and narrate the number at the concert that begins at 3 p.m. at Old Rochester Regional High School.

Marking the opening of the Tri-County Music Association's 1979-80 concert season, the program includes a sonnet for band adapted from a poem by Keats; selections from "Gigi"; Prelude in Capriccio by Alfred Reed; "Blue Tail Fly" and an avante-gard number, "Chrome".

A limited number of tickets will be avail-heard in the Southeastern Massachusetts University Lecture Series. He will speak on the topic Winston Churchill: His Legacy for Today on Monday, October 29, at 8:00 p.m. in the recital hall of the College of Visual and Performing Arts (Group VI building) off parking lot number seven. The lecture is free and open to the public.

A rising young Conservative Party politician in Britain, he will also discuss the political and economic scene in England and Europe as seen through his eyes.

"The lecture by Mr. Soames, following the recent one by activists Jane Fonda and Tom Hayden, is a perfect example of how the lecture series committee tries to balance its programs by presenting political viewpoints of all hues", says Dean Donald C. Howard, chairperson of the committee.

In the General Election of May, 1979, Soames fought for the Conservative Party in Clydebank, Scotland, and though he lost to the Labor Party, he succeeded in increasing the Conservative vote by 32 percent.

Tobey Dinner Dance

The Tobey Hospital Guild Dinner Dance reservations for Saturday evening, November 3, at the Wareham Lodge of Elks should be made by October 27 with Mrs. Kendall Clark, Mrs. Wayne Clark or Mrs. Bertil Ryberg, all of Wareham.

Floral decorations under the direction of Mrs. Robert Douglas, chairman, are being done by the Melody Shop of Wareham.

Tables, seating 8 or 10, are being brought in by the caterer. There will be several door prizes furnished by local merchants.

It is hoped that this first fund-raising event of the Tobey Hospital Guild will raise a substantial sum of money for the hospital. Among recent projects were the remodeling and furnishing of the out-patient waiting room, the purchasing of 8 air conditioning units for patients' rooms, and a tag-printer for patient supplies. "Flowers for Patients" is a continuing project funded by the Guild.

Additional sponsors, patrons and donors are: Mr. Warren Bishop, Mr. and Mrs.

"Streetcar" is the tragic story of Blanche Dubois, a fragile, trusting woman who is eventually destroyed by her crude brother-in-law, Stanley Kowalski. After a series of events which threaten to break her, Blanche shows up on the doorstep of her sister Stella in a run down section of New Orleans. From the first, Stanley and Blanche are pitted against each other with Stella caught in the middle, struggling with her love for Blanche and her love for Stanley.

Directed by Angus Bailey, the cast includes Beth Michaud, Kay Harris, David Perry, Denny Maloney, Chris Blackburn, Victor Duphily, Amy Nadien, Marianne Lawrence, Russ Coyne, Mark Stringer, Laurel Nelson, and Stuart Johnson.

Carpenter is Rick Sparrow, properties are by Chris Gaucher, costumes by Chris Gaucher and Mellanie Snipes, and lighting by Norm Byron.

"Streetcar" is the second play in this season's chronological overview of the American theatre from the 1930's until now.

Blood to Tobey

Why should you donate blood directly to Tobey Hospital? First of all, in most cases the blood you give will be used for someone in the community, perhaps a friend of yours or maybe a friend of your neighbors. Second, there is Tobey Hospital's famous insurance policy: that is, when one member of a family donates a pint, his entire family is guaranteed full coverage for an entire year.
